Theocentric Psychology Program

Doctor of Theocentric Psychology, PsyThD.

There are times when an individual's thirst for spiritual knowledge continues well after earning a metaphysical degree, even after earning a doctorate degree. To assist students in quenching that spiritual thirst, Dr. Masters, founder of the IMM University System, created profound and priceless Expanded Continuing Education Degrees.

For a limited time, it is an honor to be able to offer what is perhaps Dr. Masters most advanced spiritual teaching, the Theocentric Psychology, PsyThD., degree as an additional doctorate at a special discounted rate!

What is Theocentric Psychology?

Theocentric means "God-Centered." In a Theocentric Life, you KNOW God's Presence and think and act with God-Consciousness; this Program awakens the innate potentials in individuals by focusing on Universal Presence, or God, at the center of consciousness within oneself.

The foundation of Theocentric Psychology is based on decades of Dr. Masters' consciousness research with thousands of people spanning many decades. A Theocentric Psychology doctoral degree program serves those whose focus is on the value of attaining enlightenment and/or the application of the KNOWINGNESS that enlightenment brings to all major areas of one's life. It is not a practice of, nor seeks to replace, behavioral, clinical psychology or psychiatry dealing with mental illness or acute dysfunction. Instead, Theocentric Psychology seeks to greatly enhance or add to the lives of those who are relatively well adjusted but intuitively know that they have a greater potential within themselves to bring forth and live more fulfilling lives. This could be in occupational or career pursuits, creativity and the arts, athletics, love within one's life, as well as the God Presence Benefits of inner peace and happiness that are lasting.

The wealth of spiritual knowledge presented in this program is so rich in scope that students are given 121 lesson modules, 15 lecture videos, and 30 instructional audios. This Program even has its own website! Students are invited to read more about the program and what is offered at this link: <https://theocentricpsychology.com/>. In addition, students are welcome to view and download the table of contents to see the vast topics covered in all five volumes of Curriculum, here: <https://theocentricpsychology.com/curriculum/>
